Bad boys still exist...

Are all the real men gone? That's all Anna thinks about lately. She is tired of all those men that are all responsibility, responsibility, responsibility. If only they could leave the responsibility outside of the bedroom and, for once, satisfy her needs.

She wants something more - and she will find it.

He is a dangerous man, a bank robber who always gets what he wants. And, after taking her for a dangerous ride across the city, what he wants is to satisfy her.

Not all real men are gone, it seems.
