St. Olaf College Students
Tell It Like It Is

Did you know that the Um Ya Ya in the St. Olaf College fight song is actually a Norwegian cheer similar to Hip Hip Hooray! ? They say that everyone is a little bit Norwegian when they attend St. Olaf because the cultural heritage of the college is a vital part of the school spirit.

There s probably plenty more that you don t know about life as an Ole. Don t get caught unprepared! The College Prowler guide to St. Olaf College is chock full of statistics, advice, quotes, and insider information from the real experts the students! Here are some other facts you might not know....

Lutefisk, a traditional Norwegian dish which consists of cod soaked in lye is served in the cafeteria during Christmas Fest. Disgusting!

St. Olaf is among the nation s top colleges and universities for sending students abroad. In an average graduating class, 78 percent of students will have studied off campus.

Northfield is home to the Malt-O-Meal cereal factory, which makes the town smell like fresh baked cookies.

The Princeton Review ranked St. Olaf ninth in the nation for Great Campus Food.

Because each residence hall has its own distinct persona, the dorm you choose or are assigned to will probably say something about your personality.

The average Ole is more likely to attend a choir concert than a football game.

There s lots more that the students can tell you! Find out if St. Olaf truly has something for you, straight from the students' mouths.

Visiting campus isn't enough.

Read our St. Olaf College guide and discover what it feels like to be on campus for four years.

Discover if St. Olaf College is Right For You.

College guides written by students for students.

Your ultimate source for honest, unbiased information, College Prowler delivers an inside look at the top colleges and universities in the United States. While writing our series of college guides, we felt it was critical that our content was unbiased and unaffiliated with any college or university.

We think it's important that our readers get honest information and a realistic impression of the student opinions on any college campus that's why we intend to publish information about all aspects of a particular college, even the terrible parts you wouldn't find in a campus brochure. While we do keep an eye out for the occasional extremist the cheerleader or the cynic we take pride in letting the college students tell it like it is. We strive to create a college guide that's as representative as possible of each particular campus. Our guides cover both the good and the bad, and whether the survey responses point to recurring trends or varying opinions, these sentiments are directly and proportionally expressed through our guides.

When reading our guides and looking at our college rankings, keep in mind that every college is different and that the students who make up each college are not uniform as a result, it is important to assess colleges on a case-by-case basis. Because it's impossible to summarize an entire college with a single number or description, each guide provides a dialogue, not a decision, that's made up of 20 different topics and hundreds of student quotes. In the end, we hope that this guide will serve as a valuable tool in your college selection process. Enjoy!
