WHAT READERS ARE SAYING:

"The End of the World Playlist is a whiplash look at Zombie land at an Apocalyptic moment...and MUCH MORE! Finessed by O'Brien's stylized, clean, well-edited writing `The End' becomes a dystopian Tarrantino automatic rifle shoot 'em up! And I mean that as a compliment! You'll cringe, You'll squeal like a little girl, You'll laugh."

"As a lifelong fan of both the author's work and zombies, I was thrilled at the prospect of a combination of the two. And this story does not disappoint. With gripping prose O'Brien takes the reader deep into a world that is both achingly familiar and despondently alien. This is a further step along the path of the author's maturation. A path I will make sure to see to its end. Do not pass this up."

"This is one of Dan's best so far, from what I have read. Well edited. Fast paced. Zombies. Left me wanting to read more after the end came. Keep up the excellent work!!"

The world as we knew it had ended. Deep in the mountains of the west coast, six men survived. In the town of River's Bend, these six friends continued on with their lives as zombies inherited the Earth. As they navigated the world that had been left behind, the soundtrack of life continued on.
