Real Imitation: How Imitating God's Character Can Transform Your Life Tom Terry

How often do you find yourself acting in a way that you don't expect or don't want? Every person faces challenges of character. We want to be good people but often miss the mark. The Christian faces the same struggles of character as anyone else. But the Christian has an advantage in character building—Jesus Christ. It is possible to become the kind of person you hope to be! "Real Imitation" looks at nine aspects of God's character and how imitating these character traits can transform a person's ethics and life. Each chapter features an examination of a divine character trait followed by a series of questions for reflection and study. Suitable for personal study or for use in Bible study groups.
