The Long Road Home Michael Shaara

A woman and her fiance face some problems when she brings him to her parents' house to introduce him. Kelly, an aspiring writer, is given the cold shoulder by the parents due to his occupation and his ability to care for the woman. Doubt begins to set in, and Kelly's pride deminishes over the years until a final call from the woman's father on his deathbed leads to a great yet unexpected turn of events.
