Wise As Serpents: Godly Wisdom for Christian Entrepreneurs and Managers Jack Bailey

Christians won't hesitate to applaud an NFL star who gives his testimony about how Christ changed his life forever. We won't think twice when we are shown a video clip of him knocking an opponent silly on the field. We know football is a contact sport, so we accept it. This book is written to teach Christian entrepreneurs and managers that business is a contact sport. Most business minded believers know they are charged to help fund the gospel and to work toward a wealth transfer in the last days (Prov. 13:22). Why do you think Jesus said we should be "wise as serpents and harmless as doves"? (Matt: 10:16). Managing people and making a profit while keeping our priorities of God, family and leaving a heritage is not an easy task. Yet, that is our calling. I hope when you have finished this book along with daily prayer, you have learned how to use Godly Wisdom, how to constantly walk in faith, how to understand the law of giving, and most of all, learn how to walk in Love while playing hardball. That is the challenge. About the Author Jack Bailey is president of Bailey Business Consultants. He has learned the ups and downs of starting business ventures from the ground up. He has seen many of his business ventures grow to unusual heights and has gained knowledge through the pains of watching some of them walk through serious downturns. His gains and losses in business has given him a special insight into what it takes for an entrepreneur or officer of any corporation to look at facts and wisely decide which road to take. His intense love for business and his ability to teach others the benefits of his experiences have made him a sought after advisor and public speaker. He has learned through the years how to apply biblical principles to everyday problems and create a winning environment in business. This is his first book. More Information at jackbaileybusiness
