The Beast and His Beauty (Part I: Entranced) Crystal L. Shaw

No one in the village goes to the wall. Ever since Elle was a little girl, everyone has warned her not go or even to look at it, and if she happens to find herself close to the wall, she's been told to run as fast and as far away as she can. The dark magic from the Beast creeps beyond the wall, but not by much. Still, it's a risk no one is willing to take. And those that do, don't come back to tell their tales.

She's been warned to stay away. The thing is though, she's not a very good listener. Not only that, but she dreams of the Beast. It's not a dream she'd admit to out loud, but it's a dream she'd like to see come true.

This is Part I of The Beast and his Beauty, a Fairy Tale Fantasy

Warning: This book contains strong language and sexual situations that some readers may find offensive; others, like me, find it hot. Enjoy!
