Gems from Tozer contains various selections from A. W. Tozer, who was a gifted and writer, and provides pointedly direct snippets of his theology, such as his theology of:

Worship — "We're here to be worshipers first and workers only second. We take a convert and immediately make a worker out of him. God never meant it to be so. God meant that a convert should learn to be a worshiper, and after that he can learn to be a worker . . . The work done by a worshiper will have eternity in it.

Making Jesus Lord — "For the true Christian the one supreme test for the present soundness and ultimate worth of everything religious must be the place our Lord occupies in it. Is He Lord or symbol? Is He in charge of the project or merely one of the crew?"

The Holy Spirit — The Spirit-filled life is not a special, deluxe edition of Christianity. It is part and parcel of the total plan of God for His people . . . There is nothing about the Holy Spirit queer or strange or eerie.

Gems from Tozer is an excellent guide for any Christian who seeks to revive their faith in the Lord.
