Cherished for Centuries, a Historical and Contemporary Paranormal Romance, is a Lunch Break Reads book:

Asher Williams is an unlucky man. He was set on marrying the love of his life when they were attacked by a group of savage vampires. Not only was Asher turned into a vampire, but he also was forced to watch his love brutally attacked and murdered in the most despicable way.

But that is not the worst part. Centuries pass, and he is forced to watch as each generation reincarnates his lost love, and their tragedy repeats itself. If they fall in love, she suffers an untimely death. If he stays away, she lives a miserable life. He is stuck in a devastating cycle and doesn't know how to escape his fate.

Eliza Maxwell wants her nightmares to stop. She thinks a change of pace and scenery will bring her some peace and quiet. But when the man of her nightmares saves her from one disaster after another, she quickly realized that the images she's trying to escape may very well be memories her soul refuses to forget.

Lunch Break Reads are shorter books that fit your busy lifestyle. The publisher has included several bonus Lunch Hour Reads with this feature story.
