Aiden and Alex have both lost someone that they loved deeply, Lauren. Whilst they are both dealing with her death differently they find out that she too kept a secret, but what did she keep from them? At completely different times Alex bumps into a young woman and Aiden saves one. They both hallucinate thinking that it's Lauren, but are they both imagining things wishing that she was still alive...who is this mystery woman? Things resurface and get complicated but what do the brothers have in store for them this time?
