The Ro'Nihn Tales David Partelow

The War for Vallance has begun. As two nations become embroiled in a bitter struggle, there are none that fight more ardently for their country than the mighty warriors from Axiter. The bravest and strongest of defenders, they are the true guardians of their homeland. And in the darkest hours that Vallance has ever known, always do they stand for the light. Some call them the truest heroes and protectors. Others know them as the staunchest and deadliest of enemies. Yet all will know them as Ro'Nihn. With the help of special guest Kelsey Hendricks, David Partelow returns you to the World of LORE. Set between the first and second books of the Vallance War Series, The Ro'Nihn Tales chronicles the adventures of the men and women strong enough to be called Ro'Nihn as they defend against the encroaching forces of Thorne. Old friends are revisited and new heroes rise as Wyndall and his warriors endure the constant hardships of battle and pain wrought upon their chosen path. No matter the course, no matter the outcome, only one thing will never change: In the end, Ro'Nihn ever stand true.
