A Sweet Contemporary Romance Novella

Being assistant curator at a historical railroad museum isn't as glamorous as Amy Loch once thought it would be. There are stressful grade school tours, janitorial duties she has to help out with, and a broken clock that the museum can't afford to fix.

Though the job does have its perks. Such as when she touches the heart of a sweet little boy, then catches the eye of his father.

Without even searching for romance, Amy finds herself forging a connection with someone she never expected. After a stroke of serendipity brings them together, Amy discovers a chance to mend a hole in a broken family, and, with the help of her new friends, restore a piece of history.

This is a 20,000 word standalone novella with no cliffhanger.

Two bonus books included.
