Vineyards, Wineries & Wines of South America - 2005 Austral Spectator, Diego Bigongiari
Delivering descriptions of nearly 300 wineries and 1,800 wines from Argentina to Venezuela, this new bilingual (English/Spanish) edition of Vineyards, Wineries, and Wines of South America is the most comprehensive guide to the rich wine culture of South America. All the wines tasted were sampled blind and rated by a team of professional tasters from Argentina, Chile, Brazil, and Uruguay.

With maps of wine-producing regions included, you'll find this book an invaluable resource when deciding on a South American wine, whether you are ordering a bottle at a local restaurant or planning a tour of Peruvian vineyards.

Among its formidable wine listings, the book also features the top 50 wines of South America, which were selected from the best of the 8 wine-producing South American countries. The ranked wines participated in multiple tasting rounds that resulted in their selection by a panel of judges and certification by a notary public.

This guide-book accepts no advertising or endorsements from wineries and stands alone in the North American market as an inclusive, definitive resource on South American wines.
