This volume features two of the most clarifying texts of theosophy written by its founder, Helena Blavatsky, and also, two of the most liked and read, together with his master works Isis Unveiled and the Secret Doctrine.

THE KEY TO THEOSOPHY is written in the form of a questions and answers interview, and answers a wide variety of questions about Theosophy and its core beliefs: the human constitution, spiritual and psychological; the mysteries of periodic rebirths; and, the difference between fate, destiny, free will, and karma. Also, more "mundane" subjects as the position of Theosophy on Charity and Education. It also features a glossary of philosophical terms drawn from Sanskrit, Hebrew, and classical literature.

THE VOICE OF THE SILENCE is a Devotional classic of theosophy, concerning the seeker's inner awakening and development, leading to a choice between the compassionate path and the path for self alone.

According to Blavatsky, it comes from "The Book of the Golden Precepts", translations of three "fragments" from that book (of which there are 90 and she had memorized 39). This Book is said to include both Buddhist and pre-Buddhists views on spirituality. which "forms part of the same series as that from which the 'Stanzas' of the Book of Dzyan were taken, on which the Secret Doctrine is based."
