When Jenny watches her beloved dog Toto get attacked by a vicious Pitbull, she feels like her world is falling apart. Toto means the world to her, and she is unsure what to do without him. Tom watched the attack and immediately rushes to Jenny and Toto's assistance, rushing them to the animal hospital in hopes of saving Toto.

After also ensuring Jenny gets the medical attention she needs, Tom checks in on Jenny regularly to make sure she is doing alright with the loss of her beloved dog. Realizing that Jenny needs some kind of closure, he goes after the man responsible, only to find out he is the leader of an illegal dog fighting ring who trains dogs to attack. Toto's death wasn't an accident, it was a test to see if the dog was ready.

When Jenny realizes the lengths Tom has gone through to find closure for her, she knows he is exactly the man she has always been looking for. Will he be everything she wants in a man and stick around, or will he disappear when the case is closed?
