Another smart, sexy contemporary romance from award-winning author Susan Sey...

On the field, soccer star James Blake is pure poetry. Off the field? He's pure trouble. When his fondness for fast women and bar brawls lands him a suspension from the game, he's prepared to take his punishment like a man. But since when does a suspension come with a live-in nanny?

TV baking maven Belinda West is the epitome of home-made hospitality, on-screen and off. The personal is the professional when you're selling the good life, after all. But when her wedding day implodes in front of a live studio audience, Bel's career goes into a death spiral. She'll do anything to save it, even take charge of soccer's most famous bad boy.

To hell with the morals clause in his contract; James isn't about to shape up for some knock-off Mary Poppins. But since when does Mary Poppins laugh like a naughty angel and smell like sugar cookies? He's not looking for love but that kiss of hers is practically perfect in every way. And James has a powerful taste for trouble.
