Your ship arrives to complete the Discovery's mission: solve the mysteries behind the monolith. You must also determine what happened to the Discovery's commander, who disappeared into the monolith nine years ago. Then, if it's possible, you must repair the crippled Discovery and restart HAL, the super-computer that murdered most of the Discovery's crew. Unnoticed, the monolith stirs. It, too, has a mission, a mission prepared millions of years ago - and about to begin. This module includes a large map sheet, pictures from the movie 2010, and new character skills!
