Not-for-Profit Reporting (2007) Howard Becker and Richard J. Terrano

This title was formerly known as Miller Not-for-Profit Reporting; however, starting in 2006, we are removing the "Miller" name from all new editions. Not-for-Profit Reporting: GAAP Plus Tax, Financial, and Regulatory Requirements offers solid analysis and lucid explanations, peppered with real-world examples and cautionary advice. Make it your one-stop guide to not-for-profit accounting and reporting issues, including: - How to prepare a not-for-profit enterprise's statement of activities, statement of cash flows, and disclosures - How to recognize the value of contributions of works of art and historical treasures - How to report revenues from fundraising galas and special events - How to report promises to give, pledges, collections, and pooled investments - When and how to prepare consolidated financial statements for related organizations - The laws, regulations, and other standards that apply to not-for-profit organizations that receive direct or indirect financial assistance from the federal government
