African Animals Caroline Arnold

The continent of Africa is home to an amazing variety of wildlife.

Zebras, hippos, lions, and many other animals roam its vast open grasslands. Other species, such as gorillas and snakes, inhabit its warm tropical forests. And a few other types of animals, including camels and foxes, can even survive in Africa's and desert regions.

Filled with twenty-five breathtaking full-color photographs, this captivating book highlights many of the most fascinating animals of Africa. Youngsters are sure to find their favorites here, and, through award-winning author Caroline Arnold's clearly written text, they will discover how each one--from giraffe to elephant, meerkat to leopard--is able to adapt to its own special environment in the wild.

Filled with breathtaking photographs and kid-pleasing facts, this book features the most interesting animals of the African plains, forests, jungles, and deserts. Youngsters are sure to find all their favorites here and will learn how each one--from giraffe to elephant, meerkat to leopard--is able to adapt to its special environment.
