An Amish Christmas Love: A Heart-Warming Tale of Holiday Romance Emma Maas

A warm, romantic Amish Christmas tale!

Kate Lapp moved away two years ago at the suggestion of friends and family to start a new life and leave an abusive past behind her so she might finally heal. Away from her family, Christmas is always the hardest, but she resolves to busy herself in her work at her bakery until things take a sudden turn.

A kindly Amish woman comes in and asks Kate to commit to a special arrangement with her grandson who is also broken in spirit from the loss of his parents. Before she knows it and against her better judgment, Kate agrees and everything she knows is turned upside-down over the next two weeks.

The last thing she wants is romance, but the eligible and mysterious bachelor is anyone's dream, and she finds herself at a crossroads. Does she speak up? Or will their arrangement finish before it ever gets started. Christmas mornings will never be the same for either of them...

This is a sweet and clean, Christian Amish Romance by Emma Maas. Grab a hot cup of cocoa, a blanket for your lap and read it today for a heart-warming Christmas story.
