History of the University of Michigan Elizabeth Martha Farrand

The University of Michigan is the state's oldest university and has two satellite campuses located in Flint and Dearborn. The university was founded in 1817 in Detroit as the Catholepistemiad, or University of Michigania, about 20 years before the Michigan Territory officially became a state. What would become the university moved to Ann Arbor in 1837 onto 40 acres of what is now known as Central Campus. This book covers school history from its founding up to 1885. This book published in 1885 has been reformatted for the Kindle and may contain an occasional defect from the original publication or from the reformatting.
