Systems, Salvation, and Solidarity: Seeing the Systemic Injustices In Our World and the Christian Scriptures' Call to Respond David Young

An individual or small group study designed to explore the realities of poverty and economic injustices in our world as well as what the Bible has to say about those same topics. Participants are also invited to consider how they might practice economic justice in their own lives. The study contains seven lessons with questions for reflection and discussion as well as a list of additional resources for further study on the topic of that lesson.
