A fast-paced contemporary comedy with a romantic twist - giving a girl's own view of the cut-throat startup world, where yesterday's impossible becomes today's reality.

Gwen Mongan is a thirty-three-year-old Marketing Communications executive in an innovative startup. Besides her exciting career and dream home, former social worker Gwen's life is full with great friends, community service, and a passion for matchmaking. The only problem is her boss: the impossibly demanding and maddeningly charismatic hi-tech superstar, Jake Folton.

Gwen's thought about quitting for ages, but when Jake finally goes too far, she realizes she must find a new job. But Gwen soon discovers it's going to take more spunk and ingenuity than she knew she possessed to get away from a guy who doesn't take no for an answer. In fact, it's going to turn her tidy existence upside-down.

Can a racehorse named Purple Lemonade, a deadly Funnel-Web Spider, and a dubious Bachelor-of-the-Year contest finally show Gwen that some people are not what they seem and some risks are worth taking?

Debut novelist Myra Kendrix brings her own experience in hi-tech marketing to this page-turning comedy, set against the vibrant cityscape of Sydney, Australia.
