The Grace for Life After Divorce and Men's Modern Rights Manifesto ... Nikifor Yorgos is a lawyer whose niece has gone missing. He receives a ransom note with a tablet playing a scene where she is being raped and beaten, and threatened that he must pay up a ransom or she dies. Nikifor goes to seek the help of his old lover, Keleilah Cohen, who is now the director of a large international media company that sponsors a rescue charity. In the flavor of a Fleming novel, and the undertones of Mulder and Scully sexual tension, begins a game of cat and mouse, set against a background of intrigue, human tragedy and high drama crime fiction. Contains disturbing scenes, recommended for mature audiences only. This book is a work of fiction.
