El Arca de Noé (Spanish Edition) Khaled Al Khamissi

Khaled Al Khamissi vuelve a deslumbrar al lector, como lo hizo en su célebre Taxi, con su capacidad para indagar en los entresijos de la sociedad egipcia. Un libro crítico, pero escrito desde el hondo amor a una tierra milenaria.

«El nuevo éxito internacional del maestro de la narrativa árabe.»

"El Arca de Noé" narra la absorbente peripecia de doce personajes, hombres y mujeres de las más diversas clases sociales, cuyos destinos se cruzarán antes o después de abandonar Egipto -legal o ilegalmente- en busca de un futuro mejor... o, simplemente, para huir de la adversidad. A través de sus historias -teñidas de amistad, amor, odio, codicia...-, se dibuja el retrato veraz de una sociedad infectada por la plaga de la corrupción, la represión política y la discriminación religiosa o étnica. Escrita al calor de los recientes acontecimientos surgidos en Egipto y el mundo islámico en general -la llamada Primavera Árabe-, esta nueva obra del autor de la aclamada TAXI brilla con insólito fulgor por su extraordinario poder profético, y depara una visión tan emocionante como reflexiva de la emigración como fenómeno de nuestro tiempo.

"Khaled Al Khamissi ilustra la revolución de una gran parte de la sociedad egipcia, asfixiada por los altos precios y desgastada por quienes ejercen el poder." LE MONDE

"La nueva estrella literaria llegada del mundo árabe." DEUTSCHE WELLE

"La obra de Khaled Al Khamissi destaca por ser la más interesante de cuantas relatan las transformaciones sociales y políticas que Egipto ha sufrido durante las últimas cinco décadas." Foreign Policy Magazine

"El libro definitivo sobre la revolución egipcia." Süddeutsche Zeitung

"La obra de Al Khamissi muestra a la sociedad oscilando entre la asfixia y la ira." Neue Zürcher Zeitung

"Khaled Al Khamissi despierta nuestros embotados sentidos desde el asombro y la indignación, lo que constituye un increíble logro. Un espejo del Egipto actual, con sus contradicciones y miserias, pero también cargado de esperanza." Aheyaa
