He's surrounded by sky-high perfection. Down-to-earth Ellie doesn't stand a chance.

Ellie

Ellie Hartley spent her entire time in nursing school dreaming about saving the world, not interning for Julien Berthou. He's the most successful cosmetic surgeon around, but she finds his work to be shallow. When she's offered more money than she can turn down, she hops on a plane from London to LA, but she isn't prepared for the instant chemistry between them.

He's her boss, living a glamorous life, and he's completely out of her league. He'd never want someone like her, not when he's surrounded by so many perfect women.

Julien

Julien Berthou hired a British intern for his assistant in order to appeal to his high-class clientele, but he's taken aback by her passion and kind heart. When she brushes off his advances, it only excites him more, and suddenly all the lines are blurred as he tries to win her over.

He could have any woman he wants, but he wants her.

She is the flawed perfection he's been searching for, if only she'll believe him.
