Malum Lux (Forever Light Book 1) R Hoddinott

When two seemingly unrelated lives become entwined, a new prodigy and old society collide in a cataclysm that is set to shake the very fabric of reality.

Raife seeks answers to why the relationship he has with his girlfriend has collapsed without his memory. He finds that only his mother can help him with a secret she has kept all his life leading them both to discover his true power.

On the other side of Bakingswood Sean struggles to fight against a kidnapper whom has shot his partner and threatens to kill his fiancé by possessing her body, a feat he proves is simple to complete. Their plight becomes combined against a secret organisation of master skin changers called the Lux who have operated throughout the ages influencing historical events in order to feed their own hungry regimes.

As the police close in through an increasing number of murders, Raife's powers prove more magnificent than any other as a means to stop the Lux. Once their paths combine his anger and naivety will eventually decide their fate and the fate of our world.
