The Crossroads Cub Mccallister

The Crossroads: The intersection between Heaven, Hell, Earth and Purgatory. A place of legend, and pure fiction. . .or is it? For Evin Daniels, the cost of finding out may be his very soul. Evin is a man who has spent most of his life running from the demons of his childhood. Memories that are too painful, he simply locks away, hoping to never have to deal with them. But as Evin breezes through life, his past starts to catch up with him. He sees nightmarish visions of a red-eyed creature, lurking in the darkness, watching his every move. He hears whispers of long-forgotten voices on the wind, reminding him of a broken vow. Confused and shaken, Evin starts to question everything. Are the warnings from the Cajun witch who raised him true? Are the murders of two boys near his home connected to his past somehow? And what of the gorgeous stranger, Gabriel, who always seems to be underfoot? Desperately, Evin searches for the truth, fearing it will ultimately lead him to the Crossroads. . .
