Taryn's camera is finally revealing a past to her that she's always longed to see—the mysterious Shakers as they were 100 years ago. But is she seeing a past she hadn't bargained for?

Taryn Magill is ready for a break from the supernatural. She'd never planned on being a psychic detective. When she's offered the job at historic Shaker Village, known colloquially as "Shaker Town," in central Kentucky, she's ecstatic. The quaint, beautifully restored site is just what she needs to unwind, regroup, and relax.

But the ghosts are restless.

At first, the ghostly images of the past that her beloved camera, Miss Dixie, picks up are exciting. Taryn is finally able to see something that many visitors and historians would kill for—the mysterious Shakers in action. The village is alive like never before.

Things take a deadly turn, however, when Taryn witnesses a murder.

Evil lurks among the idyllic setting and it's wrapping its icy fingers around Taryn, threatening to pull her under into a world she might never escape. Can she solve one of Shaker Town's most horrifying mysteries and finally put things to rest there? Or will she succumb to the evil and madness that haunt her?

A FREE companion short story is included with this novel! Read a completely new ghost story from another character's perspective!

Book 4 in the Taryn's Camera series, a paranormal mystery series that follows 30-year-old Taryn Magill, a mixed media artist who recreates historical, and often rundown, buildings through her paintings. Her real talent, however, is the fact that she can SEE the past through the lens of her beloved camera, Miss Dixie. Together, they work to solve the mysteries of the places they visit—sometimes with the extra help of the dead. The hauntings and poltergeists are only the beginning of what they find! A little crime noir, a little mystery, a little paranormal-and a whole lot of fun!
