The Cinnamon Bear is an old-time radio program. The program was produced by TRANSCO, the Transcription Company of America, based in Hollywood, and specifically designed to be listened to (six days a week excluding Sundays) between Thanksgiving and Christmas. It was first broadcast between Friday, November 26, and Saturday December 25, 1937.

The story focuses on Judy and Jimmy Barton who must venture from their home to the enchanted world of Maybeland to recover their missing Silver Star that belongs on top of their Christmas tree. Helping on this quest for the missing star is The Cinnamon Bear, a stuffed bear with shoe button eyes, and a green scarf. They meet other memorable characters on this quest, including the Crazy Quilt Dragon (who repeatedly tries to take the star for himself), the Wintergreen Witch, Fe Fo the Giant, and even Santa Claus.

The episodes would air starting at Thanksgiving and would end at Christmas, with one episode airing each night. This audiobook contains more than five hours of listening fun for kids of all ages. Includes ALL 26 episodes.
