Janet is in her sexual prime. A thirty-something year old gorgeous woman, she is what every man dreams of. Her life is pretty solid with her boyfriend Trevor, a millionaire entrepreneur that affords Janet a life in the lap of luxury. Together for five years, the two of them have settled into a comfortable rhythm in their relationship and they are happy with the way that life is.

Trevor tends to work a lot, a fact that is understandable to Janet. After all, hard work and risk taking is what helped Trevor reach the top of the ladder of success. She doesn't complain when he has to work late, she simply finds other ways to keep herself busy. One of those ways is having a drink at a local hotel restaurant.

Janet is interested in doing some things that will spice up the bedroom for her and Trevor. She hopes that he is game and when she mentions her proposal, he is all in, to her surprise. And Janet has just the person in mind to help them.

Janet meets a mysterious stranger at the hotel bar. He confesses that he has not only lost his memory, but that an accident has left him with brain trauma that has left an unfortunate side effect- an insatiable sex drive. Will this stranger be the one to help Janet and Trevor stoke the fires of passion in their relationship? Can Janet and Trevor's relationship survive this new level that they are exploring while they search for satisfaction?
