The Fifth Annual Conference on State and Local Taxation was held in Richmond, Va., September 5-8, 1911. Hon. William Hodges Mann, Governor of Virginia, presided as permanent chairman, following the precedent established in former Conferences, and showing, by the courtesy displayed and the interest manifested, the importance which he attaches to the subject of taxation. The invitation issued by Governor Mann to the Governors of the several States requesting the appointment of delegates to the Conference sets forth the objects and methods of organization and is therefore reprinted here.
