Candles are relatively cheap and easy to find on the market today. Because of that, why would anyone want to make candles? For some, the pleasure comes from making something they find meaningful or useful. Others want to create a homemade product to gift a friend, colleague or family member. This guide will take you through the journey of making candles while assuming you are an eager learner with no prior experience. Topics you'll learn about include:

candle types
waxes
wicks
fragrances and dyes
how to make container, votive and pillar candles

By the end of this guide, you'll be able to make three types of candles and have the knowledge and skills to make many more.
