Cartas a mi hermana en La Habana (Spanish Edition) Mercedes Sarduy

Dedicado a las familias separadas por causas ajenas a su voluntad, Cartas a mi hermana en La Habana es un testimonio que muestra cómo la evolución política-desde la fe en el proyecto revolucionario hasta el desengaño- se empeña en dañar y destruir los lazos de amor y respeto de la familia cubana. Testimonios basados en la extensa correspondencia que Severo Sarduy mantuvo con su familia durante los 34 años de separación física que vivieron desde 1959, año que salió de Cuba - a la cual nunca regresó- hasta su fallecimiento en París, donde residió la mayor parte de su vida, en 1993.
